SALEM, November 5.

Laſt Saturday Capt. Peaſe, in the Brig Union, arrived at Marblehead from London, by whom we are favoured with a London Print of the 17th of September from which the following Articles were taken, viz.

PETERSBURGH, Auguſt 16.

BY ſeveral letters from our army under Prince Dolgorouki, we learn, that our fleet from Aſoph is in the harbour of Caffa, which has ſtruck terror into the inhabitants of Conſtantinople.

Arta in Lower Albany, July 31. They write from Negropont that the peaſants of the neighbouring countries have quitted their habitations to take ſhelter in the heart of the iſland. Athens has been ſacked, and the natives of Albany, in their different incurſions, have laid waſte above a hundred leagues of ground.

READING, (ENGLAND) Sept. 14. Britain, who has lately engaged the public attention, by acknowledging himſelf to be one of the incendiaries employed to burn Portſmouth dock-yard, ſtill perſiſts in his former declaration, and ſeems greatly diſappointed, that no order has yet been received for his removal to London; he denies having the leaſt knowledge of Dudley, and is quite ſilent relative to the particulars of the fire. Though he ſometimes appears fond of giving a detail of the various ſcenes of villany in which he has been engaged; among others, he mentions having received a ſum of money in June 1770, (in conjunction with four more) to ſhoot a Great Perſon in Hyde-park, which he ſays would actually have been effected, had not his Piſtol miſſed fire.

LONDON, Sept. 10. 1771.

Letters from Breſt ſay, that ſome hundreds of the Engliſh ſhip-builders, who were employed in the King's Yard there, are ordered to Toulon, to expedite the fitting out of ſome men of war ſaid to be deſtined for the French ſettlements in North-America.

It appears, from the navy regiſters kept in every ſea port town in France, that 40,000 ſea-men are enrolled in the French King's ſervice.

Sept. 17. It is now ſaid the Parliament will meet for the diſpatch of buſineſs ſome time in November.

Laſt week Sir Robert Bernard and Col. Barre arrived in town from their travels; they have made the tour of Spain, Italy, and Portugal, where it is ſaid they have picked up ſome material intelligence.

Two Algerine Xebeques have taken a Daniſh frigate of 20 guns in the Mediterranean, after an engagement of one hour, and have carried her into Algiers. The Capt. and ſome of the crew eſcaped in their long boat, whilſt the Barbarians were boarding their frigate. They were ſoon after taken up by an Engliſh frigate, which went in purſuit of the Xebeques, but without being able to come up with them; the account ſays the Mediterranean ſwarms with theſe pirates.

There is a current report that the merchants of London will eſpouſe the cauſe of Meſſrs. Aldermen Peers and Naſh at the enſuing election for Lord-Mayor; if ſo, it is thought their connections in trade will carry the election.

A letter from a gentleman at Dunkirk, to his friend in town, mentions, that an embarkation of troops was carrying on with great expedition at that place, and at the different ſeaports in France.

Saturday advice was received by expreſs from Paris, to a merchant of this city, that an account was brought there of the ſailing of two fleets, one from Breſt, and the other from Toulon; that they had taken on board proviſions for ſix months, but to what part they were bound was kept a profound ſecret. It further ſays, that councils are daily held, and that Count de Guignes is preſent at all of them.

Arrived the John, White, from Boſton.

Graveſend, September 15. Paſſed by the Paoli, Cazneau, from Boſton.

QUEBEC, October 10.

On Thurſday the 26th September laſt, between the Hours of 4 and 5 in the Evening happened the following extraordinary Accident, viz.

Upon the Arrival of a young Man, in a Caleche at one Joſeph Renaud's Door in the Pariſh of St. Peters, South-River, the Earth opened, ſwallowed up, and buried him under its Maſs, together with the Carriage and two Horſes. There were in the houſe a Woman, two Girls, and a young Lad; the latter perceiving this extraordinary Accident, cried out, let us ſave ourſelves, at the ſame Time going out of the houſe to make his Eſcape, when he ſaw the Earth again opening about 18 Feet wide, which obliged him to retire, but the Woman, who likewiſe endeavoured to ſave herſelf, was ſwallowed up; the Lad was returning into the Houſe where the Girls had remained, in the greateſt conſternation and fright, when all on a ſudden it fell down, was carried to about the Diſtance of an Acre and Half from where it ſtood, and buried in the River, under an enormous Maſs of Land, which prevents any Part of its being ſeen except the End of one of the Rafters; notwithſtanding the Lad was only found up to the Shoulders in the Earth, and whoſe doleful Cries brought ſome People to his Aſſiſtance, who had almoſt dug him out, when the Barn, which was at a greater Diſtance than the Houſe, fell and was likewiſe ſwallowed up in the Abyſs, this obliged the People to leave the Lad, who continued calling for their Aſſiſtance; but a little Time after, notwithſtanding the Danger, they returned and ſaved him.

This Immerſion has formed a Bank at leaſt three Acres broad, the Height of which exceeds the Shore, by about 15 Feet; it has ſhut up the Channel of the River in ſuch a Manner, that the Waters had not ceaſed to re-flow the 29th, and left it quite dry below the Bank.

It is a difficult Matter to diſcover the Cauſe of ſo extraordinary a falling, as there was not the leaſt Sign of an Earth-quake, and as it was a Hill, the declivity of which to the River was very gentle: Yet, as the Land formed a ſmall Creek, againſt which the Waters ſtruck, and had cut a very deep Channel therein, it is to be preſumed, that having, by Degrees, waſhed away the Earth, which is of a very ſoft Clay, it had in Courſe of Time, made a ſubterraneous paſſage; This appears the more probable, as in the Place where the land ſunk, there appeared a deep Pit about 60 Feet perpendicular.

It is to be obſerved that ſome days before this Accident, the Chimney ſeemed to the Maſter of the Houſe to have ſunk, and a few Stones had fallen down.

On the Whole we leave, to the Conſideration of Perſons of better Judgment, to give ſome more natural Reaſons for the above fatal Event.

PHILADELPHIA, October 28.

By Captain Martin in the Brig George, arrived here yeſterday from Hiſpaniola, we have the following melancholy accounts: in lat. 23: 30, long. 59: 30, ſpoke Capt. Brown in the Brig—— bound from Virginia to the Mole, who had ſuſtained great damage in a hurricane which happened on the 25th ult. ſhe had her maſts carried away, and had been laid upon her beam ends about 36 hours; her cables were waſhed from the ſteerage into the cabbin by a breach of the ſea, and her dead lights drove out; the Captain and the company were 15 day without Proviſions or water, except a ſmall piece of pork, which was luckily found in the ſteerage; and they were in a moſt perilous condition. A brig and a ſloop both from the ſame place, came into the Mole diſmaſted. Two large ſchooners belonging to Salem were loſt among the Keys, and all on board periſhed; alſo, a number of other veſſels, but all unknown.—A veſſel arrived there from St. Euſtatia, informed, that a great number of veſſels were likewiſe loſt at the Windward Iſlands.

We hear that the Maſter of a Veſſel, who run by Guadaloupe in the Hurricane about the middle of September laſt, ſaw 17 ſail of Veſſels on ſhore there.

NEW-YORK, October 31.

Extract of a Letter from Kingſton, in Jamaica, September 16, 1771.

"SEPT. 3d. This Morning about 8 o'Clock, we had a moſt dreadful and terrible Earthquake, which laſted about one Minute; had it continued half that Time longer every Houſe in this City muſt have been levelled to the Ground. The Shock was ſo ſevere that it was with much Difficulty People could keep their Feet. The general Terror among the Inhabitants can better be conceived than expreſſed; every One being in dreadful Expectation of inſtantaneous Death—It pleaſed God, however, to ſpare us, and in his Judgments to remember Mercy. My Houſe rocked like a Cradle, and I fully expected it muſt have rent aſunder. Think my Friend, what muſt have been the Situation of my Mind on this Occaſion! To ſee my Wife and Family flying frantic and wild, ſeeking Protection from me—Good God! I would not paſs ſuch another Minute tho' to purchaſe Millions of Worlds.—About Half an Hour after, we had another Shock, tho' not ſo violent, and between 9 and 10 at Night another ſomething harder than the laſt. The next Day there were no leſs than five Shocks more, and between that Time and the Date of this Letter, ſcarce a ſingle Day has paſſed without our feeling this dreadful Convulſion of Nature, and ſtill this City is preſerved as a Monument of God's Mercy and Goodneſs. The late Earthquake at Hiſpaniola being called to our Minds afreſh, you may well imagine added much to our Apprehenſions."

SALEM, November 5.

We hear that a ſmall Schooner belonging to Newbury-Port, with 8 or 10 Hogſheads of Molaſſes, was caſt-away laſt Saturday at Pilcataqua.

In the Storm, laſt Saturday Night, a large Brigantine, with 280 Hogſheads of Molaſſes on board, belonging to Newbury-Port, and bound in there from the Weſt-Indies, commanded by Captain Choate, in endeavouring to get into Cape-Ann Harbour, run upon the Rocks in Brace's Cove and beat to Pieces, ſo that the Cargo, as well as Veſſel, was entirely loſt; but the Men were providentially all ſaved. We hear that Capt. Choate ſaid, that if there had been any Light on Eaſtern Point (the Spot where the Cape-Ann Gentlemen were ſolicitous for having a Light-Houſe built, in Preference to Thatcher's Iſland, where one is now erecting) he ſhould undoubtedly have ſaved his Veſſel.

Messieurs EDES & GILL,

WE read that "Jeroboam the Son of Nebat made Israel to sin": For this he "stands recorded" and repeatedly stigmatiz'd, in the sacred volumn, as a "perjur'd Traitor," and a Rebel against GOD and his Country. However mysterious fawning priests and flatterers may affect to think it, Kings and Governors may be guilty of treason and rebellion: And they have in general in all ages and countries been more frequently guilty of it, than their subjects. Nay, what has been commonly called rebellion in the people, has often been nothing else but a manly & glorious struggle in opposition to the lawless power of rebellious Kings and Princes; who being elevated above the rest of mankind, and paid by them only to be their protectors, have been taught by enthusiasts to believe they were authoriz'd by GOD to enslave and butcher them! It is not uncommon for men, by their own inattention and folly, to suffer those things which an all-gracious providence design'd for their good, to become the greatest evils. If we look into the present state of the world, I believe this will hold good with regard to civil government in general: And the history of past ages will inform us, that even those civil institutions which have been best calculated for the safety and happiness of the people, have sooner or later degenerated into settled tyranny; which can no more be called civil government, and is in fact upon some accounts a state much more to be deprecated than anarchy itself. It may be said of each, that it is a state of war. And it is beyond measure astonishing that free people can see the miseries of such a state approaching to them with large and hasty strides, and suffer themselves to be deluded by the artful insinuations of a man in power and his indefatigable sycophants, into a full persuasion that their liberties are in no danger. May we not be allow'd to adopt the language of scripture, and apply it upon so important a consideration; that seeing, men will see and not perceive, and hearing, they will hear and not understand?

Jeroboam must needs have been a very wicked Governor: And he discover'd so much of the malignancy of treason against his people, in making them to sin against the supreme Being upon whose power and protection the welfare of nations as well as individuals so manifestly depends, and by whose goodness that people in particular were so greatly oblig'd, that one would have thought, they would upon a retrospect of their folly, in being thus seduc'd, have testified to future generations their just resentment and indignation, by at least dethroning so impious a traitor. Perhaps they relented when they consider'd that their Governor was "born and educated among them"! But this heightened his wickedness; as it might have convinc'd them, that he was as destitute of the common feelings of love for one's native country, as he was of religion and piety. This, and many other instances of later date may serve to shew, that the people have no solid reason to depend upon every man that he will be a good Governor, merely because of his having had his birth and education among them; as well as the folly and wickedness of priests and minions, who would from such a circumstance endeavor to dupe the people into a persuasion of their security under any man's administration. The sin which the people of Israel were prevail'd upon by Jeroboam the son of Nebat to commit, respected their religious worship on a Thanksgiving-day: He had ordained a solemn festival to be kept at Bethel; in which, it seems, he had a particular view to serve a political purpose: And the people knew it, although he had artfully endeavour'd to colour it with a plausible appearance. At this festival, through his influence, they sacrificed unto Calves! This was the dire effect of their foolish adulation of their Governor, while they professed to observe a day set apart in honor to the King of kings.—Their thanksgiving began with prophaneness & ended in idolatry; or rather it began & ended with both. There is no question but the priests were the vicegerents of the Governor, or his heralds to publish his impious proclamations to the people. But is it not strange that the people were so king-ridden and priest-ridden, especially in matters which concern'd their Religion, as to look upon the joint authority of their Governor and Clergy, sufficient to justify them in sinning against the authority of God himself: and in acting in open violation of his law, revealed to them from Heaven with signs and miracles at Mount Sinai, and register'd in their book of the law, as well as engrav'd on the tables of their hearts!—It is no unusual thing for people to compliment their Governors with the sacrifice of their consciences, after they have surrender'd to them their civil liberty, which had been the folly of that people long before; for they grew weary of their liberty in the days of Samuel the prophet, and exchanged that civil government which the wisdom of heaven had prescribed to them, for an absolute despotic monarchy; that they might in that regard be like the nations round about them.—Even in these enlightened times, the people in some parts of the world are so bewitched by the enchantments of priest-craft and king-craft, as to believe that tho' they sin against their own consciences, in compliance with the instruction of the one, or in obedience to the command of the other, they shall never suffer, but shall be rewarded in the world to come, for being so implicitly subject to the higher powers: And the experience of the world tells us that there are, and always have been various ways of rewarding them for it in this world. On the contrary, if they hesitate to declare a blind belief in the most palpable absurdities in government and religion, they are sure to fall into the immediate hands of spiritual inquisitors, to be whipped and tortured into an acknowledgment of the error, or threatned with the further pains of eternal damnation if they persist in their contumacy.

Thanks be to GOD, there is not yet so formidable a junction of the secular and ecclesiastical powers in this country; and there is reason to hope there are but few of the clergy who would desire it. Yet such is the deplorable condition we are in, and so notorious is it to all, that should any man, be he who he may, tell me that our civil liberties were continued, or that our religious privileges were not in danger, I should detest him, if in his senses, as a perfidious man. And if any clergyman should in compliance with the humours or designs of a man in power, echo such a false declaration in the church of GOD, he would in my opinion do well seriously to consider, whether an excessive complaisance may not have betrayed him into the sin of Ananias and Saphira, in lying against the Holy Ghost! This is a most weighty consideration: But the times require plain dealing. We hope and believe, nay we know that there are more than seven thousand who will never bow the knee to Baal, or servilely submit to Tyranny, temporal or spiritual: But are we not fallen into an age when some even of the Clergy think it no shame to flatter the Idol; and thereby to lay the people, as in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, under a temptation to commit great wickedness, and sin against God? Let us beware of the poison of flattery—If the people are tainted with this folly, they will never have VIRTUE enough to demand a restoration of their liberties in the very face of a TYRANT, if the necessity of the times should call for so noble an exertion. And how soon there may be such NECESSITY, GOD only knows. May HE grant them FORTITUDE as well as SOUND PRUDENCE in the day of TRIAL! He who can flatter a Despot, or be flattered by him, without feeling the remonstrances of his own mind against it, may be remarkable for the guise and appearance of sanctity, but he has very little if any true religion—If he habitually allows himself in it, without any remorse, he is a hardned impenitent sinner against GOD and his COUNTRY. Whatever his profession may be, he is not fit to be trusted; and when once discover'd, he never will be trusted by any but fools and children. To complement a great man to the injury of truth and liberty, may be in the opinion of a very degenerate age, the part of a polite and well-bred gentleman—Wise men however will denominate him a Traitor or a Fool. But how much more aggravated must be the folly and madness of those, who instead of worshipping GOD in the solemn assembly, "in spirit and in truth," can utter a lie TO HIM!!—in order to render themselves acceptable to a man who is a worm, or to the son of a man who is a worm.

CANDIDUS.

Messieurs EDES & GILL,

SOME of the Governor's friends have given out that the clause in a late proclamation to which so much exception is justly taken by the generality of people in this town, was not propos'd by his Excellency, but by one of the Council. It would be very satisfactory to know who this Councellor was, that could find it in his heart to propose a day of thanksgiving for the Continuance of our civil Liberties, while an act of parliament is rigidly put in execution, whereby a revenue is drawn out of the pockets of the people without their consent, and against the repeated remonstrances of every assembly on the continent—Could we be inform'd who this gentleman is, we should be able to ascertain what his real sentiments were of the Stamp-Act, more precisely than by the warmest professions of his attachment to the constitutional rights of his Country without doors—It is a mortification to us that the proposal prevail'd; but it would be more humiliating still to hear that there was a unanimous vote for it—Whether the Governor privately suggested his sentiment to the gentleman who made the proposal to the Board or not, he adopted it and made it his own act. Thus an obnexious clause has been introduc'd, which was propos'd, debated and rejected the last year, while the objection to it must be allow'd upon many accounts to be stronger than it was at that time, or ever before since the days of Andros. It is generally thought that the clause would never have obtain'd, if propos'd in a full Council. Indeed it is hardly possible to know what would have been the sentiments of a full Board, upon many points that have been debated and determined by so small a number as usually meet——The whole body according to Charter consists of Twenty-eight, of which seven makes a quorum. A General Council is commonly summon'd at times when the assembly of the province meets; and is then adjourn'd from week to week, doing little or no business till the session of the assembly is over, when those gentlemen of the Council who live in the country return to their respective homes—Thus the General Council being kept alive by adjournments, the principal and most important part of the business of their executive department is done by a third of their whole number who live in and about this town, and perhaps sometimes less—If therefore the Governor can make a majority of so small a part of the Board, matters may always be determin'd according to his mind. I believe it may be safely affirm'd that by far the greater number of civil officers are nominated and appointed at these adjournments——Whether it be agreeable to the true spirit of the Institution I leave others to judge. If it be not, I hope to see a reformation.

Capt. Brown arrived here laſt Friday from London; he has bro't no later Papers than Capt. Peaſe arrived at Marblehead, mention'd in the firſt Page.

Extract of a Letter from London, Aug. 30, 1771.

"It is talk'd of here that your only remaining Grievance, I mean the Tax on Tea, is going to be removed next Seſſions of Parliament, and then I think nothing can hinder our ſhaking Hands, and wiſhing Proſperity to Great-Britain and her Colonies. I hope you will bear with me."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman of Diſtinction in VIRGINIA.

"I think you are extremely unlucky in your Governors; your Aſſembly have done right, and I hope they will continue ſteady. I would ſooner give my Vote to have the lazy Raſcals hang'd, than to exempt them from Taxes which are for the ſupport of the Government under which they live ſo much at their Eaſe. When our worthy Governor firſt came amongſt us he had been ſo prepoſſeſſed againſt Americans in general, that by his haſty and imprudent Diſmiſſion of his Aſſembly, we had great Reaſon to dread his Adminiſtration; but by a prudent and ſteady Behaviour we convinc'd him, we were determin'd to ſupport our Rights, and that though we had great Reaſon to be diſpleaſed with his Meaſures, yet we lik'd him as a Man, and hoped his public conduct was only owing to the arbitrary Dictates of a wicked and corrupt Adminiſtration at Home, who he had unthinkingly undertaken to ſupport: This had ſuch an Effect upon him, that he became a new Man, and I verily believe if he had lived, he would have been the greateſt Friend America ever had, at all Events I WISH YOU HAD HIS EQUAL."

Friday laſt died at Cambridge, Mr. BELCHER HANCOCK, in the 63d Year of his Age. He had for many Years (before he reſigned) been one of the Fellows of the Corporation and Tutor of Harvard College. His Remains will be interred at 3 o'Clock this Afternoon.

The 14th ult. died at Edgartown, after one Day's Illneſs, Æt. 71. Ebenezer Smith, Eſq; one of the Judges of the Interior Court, in Duke's-County: A Gentleman of good Abilities, and of diſtinguiſh'd Honeſty and Integrity. He diſcharg'd the Duties of his publick Station with great Faithfulneſs and Impartiality. In his private Character he manifeſted a ſteady Regard to Piety and Religion: He was not only juſt, but humane and compaſſionate: He was the tender Huſband, the affectionate Father, and the agreeable Friend. And as theſe Virtues ſhine forth with an endearing and attractive luſtre, ſo he lived highly eſteemed, and died greatly lamented, not only by his Family and near Relations, but by his Acquaintance in general.

Married.] Mr. Hugh Tarbett, Merchant, to Miſs Abigail Fitch, eldeſt Daughter of Mr. Timothy Fitch, of this Town, Merchant.

Married.] The Rev. Mr. John Bacon, to Mrs. Elizabeth Cummings, daughter of Ezekiel Goldthwait, Eſq;

We hear a Clergyman lately Married, the Day previous to the Celebration of the Nuptials, preached from thoſe Words, "ALL THINGS ARE READY."

We have Authority to inform the Public, That at an Aſſociation of the Reverend Clergy of Plymouth County, on the Subject of the coming Thanksgiving, 13 out of 15 declined reading the Proclamation as uſual; whereupon after ſeriouſly debating the Matter, they agreed that each ſhould be left to his own Diſcretion, as to the Reading; but that every one would enter into the Conſideration of the Articles recommended in it at large; when we doubt not our Chriſtian Brethren will be conducted in a Manner well pleaſing to the GOD of TRUTH, and all ſuch of their Fellow-Chriſtians as fear to offend him, by baſe Compliances with the impious Stratagems of evil and deſigning Men.

We are told, that an ancient, honorable and truly religious Gentleman, who has for many Years been a faſt Friend to the Governor, and always endeavoured to conſtrue his Actions in the moſt favourable Light, looks upon this laſt Manœuvre to be ſo daring a Rush upon the Boſſes of the Buckler of the great Jehovah, that he has very reluctantly, but very fully given him up.

Laſt Thurſday Evening, pretty late, two young Women, Tayloreſſes, coming home acroſs Kingſtreet, the foremoſt carrying a Lanthorn was ſtopp'd by a Man of War's Man, who tried to wreſt the Light from her with one hand while he ſeized her by the other. She ſtruck him in the Face with the hand that was at liberty, which he returned with his Fiſt upon the Ear, till he knock'd her down on the pavement; the other young Woman then attack'd him with her Lay-board, and at length reaching a blow to his head bro't him in his turn to the ground; the young Women having made an Outcry betimes in the engagement, and people gathering round, the Hero march'd off leaving the one he firſt engaged much hurt, and bleeding from the Ear he firſt ſtruck her upon.——We ſhould be much obliged to the Author of the late Journal of Occurrences for the reſumption of his Pen on theſe occaſions, which for ſome months paſt have been but too frequent among us.

Thurſday laſt the Rev. Mr. TIMOTHY HILYARD, of Barnſtable, was married to Miſs POLLY FOSTER, Daughter of Deacon THOMAS FOSTER of this Town, an amiable young Lady.

It is ſaid the Worſhipping Aſſembly at the Old South Church, whoſe Paſtor had ſo prematurely as well as unexpectedly in the Abſence of his ſenior Colleague, read the Governor's Proclamation with the exceptionable Clauſe, ſtopped after divine Service was ended Yeſterday, and expreſs'd their great Diſſatisfaction at that Part of the Rev. Mr. Ba[illegible]n's Conduct.

We hear the Proclamation which has given ſo much Offence to the good People of this Province, was read in no other Congregational Church in this Town, than the American Manufactor'd Doctors (1) which gave ſo much Uneaſineſs to his Hearers, that many of them took their Hatts and walk'd out while he was reading it.

It is ſaid that one of the Governor's Privy Council, in Excuſe of the exceptionable Clauſes in the Proclamation, aſcribed to his Maſter, declared, That his Excellency bro't the Draught into Council without them, and only ſuggeſted that he had had ſome Thoughts of ſuch Clauſes; but queſtioning with himſelf whether they would be agreeable to the People, left it with his Council.

☞ No Queſtion was made whether a Fallacy which glared even the Governor's Conſcience in the Face, would be agreeable to the Almighty, when in co-woven with the moſt ſolemn Act of his Worſhip. All was ſafe with him, could he but furniſh himſelf with this intereſting Intelligence to Lord Hillſborough, that by his matchleſs Addreſs, he had moddled the puritannic Bottonians into a Humour to ſeal their own Damnation, by deliberately, wittingly and willingly offering up in Sacrifice to God for the Favours of a Year, a NOTORIOUS LIE!!!

Thus conſcious Guilt ſelf-damns the treacherous Heart,
And brings its Council in to bear a Part.' Metuenux.

Oxford, November 1, 1771.

This Day about 10 o'Clock in the Forenoon the Dwelling-houſe, of Doctor Alexander Campbell of Oxford, took Fire by one of his Apprentices breaking a Bottle of Oil Turpentine which held about 7 Gallons, he taking Aſhes ſuppoſing to be cold to clean it up, it took Fire violently run to other Bottles which burſt, & burſt open a Door were the Doctor's Wife lay, as ſhe had lain in but a few Days, who immediately was carried out with her Bed and Bedding, which was all that was ſaved, except a very few Trifles: His Books and all his Accounts were entirely conſumed, as alſo a very fine Aſſortment of Drugs, newly imported from England. This Houſe was fitted and finiſhed to his Mind, which he enjoyed but a few Weeks—and then this cruel Maſter deprives him thereof, not leaving him or his Family a ſecond Shirt, &c. to their Backs. In this deplorable State this poor Man is in; which it's hoped will excite the Compaſſion of Chriſtian Friends, eſpecially thoſe of the Faculty. His Loſs is computed to be £1000 Lawful Money.
